Options

Pennine Events would like to offer you the chance to sit back and relax, putting on your event or elements of it. Take a look at the options below:

Entire Event

Pennine Events are experts in the event industry, hosting client events and creating new ideas and concepts since 2002. If you have an event that you are finding difficult to put on due to timescales, budget, or any other reason then why not look to outsource this to Pennine Events?

As part of the process Pennine Events will handle your event with care and in full consultation with you to ensure that it succeeds while maintaining the respect and attention to detail that you have built up in previous years.

For this process a quote would be produced following an initial meeting, so please get in touch with us at Pennine Events, 01772 447979 or markp@pennineevents.co.uk.

What do you have to do for an event?

Not that much! Pennine Events are here to do the work for you. We will ensure that together we choose the right event for you; the event that will appeal to your fundraisers and as such we would ask you to ensure that your fundraisers make an appearance at your event.

Marketing

Working with our marketing team here at Pennine Events we will look to ensure that between us we get the very best out of your fundraisers. Pennine Events will be only too happy to work with you to give the public the very best chance to join up on your event. We will also between us look to target a new range of fundraisers to add to your database and boost those all-important income figures.

Volunteers

Always a crucial part of any event we would like for you to play your part and bring your incredible volunteers to the event, not to take on event production roles, but to help you to make the most of your day.

Focus on YOUR fundraisers

We understand that the donor journey means so much to you and your charity so it is therefore important to us that you have the time to focus on your donors and not the event details. Working with Pennine Events gives you the very best opportunity to ensure that you create fundraisers for life, developing that all important journey from initial enquiry to event attendance and fundraising, to becoming a committed supporter, volunteer, and eventually direct debit and legacy donor. Fundraising is about relationships, let us give you the time to develop yours.

Ideas

The main thought process behind an event will often come from what is at your disposal, what you have done in the past, what your supporters prefer, or simply a crazy idea. Talk us through your set up and we will take it from there.

Contact

If this is not the event for you but you have an idea you'd like to share with us, let us know and we'll put it together for you!
